Madison, Wisconsin -- Erik C. Peterson, United States Attorney for the Western District of Wisconsin, announced that De'Allo Gordon, 31, of Beloit, Wisconsin, was sentenced today by U.S. District Judge John C. Shabaz to 230 months in prison for distributing crack cocaine. This term of imprisonment will be followed by five years of supervised release. Gordon pleaded guilty to this charge on August 23, 2006.

Judge Shabaz found that Gordon had been part of large-scale drug operation since 2002 and was responsible for distributing more than 1.9 kilograms of crack cocaine in the Beloit area.

The charges against Gordon were the result of an investigation conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the State Line Area Narcotics Team, the Beloit Police Department, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, and the Wisconsin Department of Justice, Division of Criminal Investigation-Narcotics Bureau. The prosecution of the case has been handled by Assistant U.S. Attorneys Jeff Anderson and Elizabeth Altman.
